

Roles & Recipes

One day, my daughter informed me that she had applied to the TV show "wife swap" because she wished in her words to "have a mom that is opposite of you". I asked her what would that get her and she said "a mom that cooks, eats dinner with us and is attentive".

That is when I decided to use the "roles and recipes". In doing so I found myself being the Mom when I came home. It was effortless to change into Mom when home, the HR Director when at work, the wife and lover when with my husband. A new and exciting world appeared.
